WITH CHINESE ON AMERICAN CONSULWilliamson, Mobbed and Beaten in Market at Dalny, Is Refused Police Assistance.

VICTORIA, B. C., Jan. 18.—Details of an assault on United States Vice-Consul Williamson at Dalny, Manchuria, Japanese and Chinese on Dec. 21, reported to Washington by cable have been received by the steamship Williams, which has arrived here. Mr. Williamson, according to advices received, went to inspect the fish market recently opened by Japanese at Dalny and was on a high stand watching an auction sale when a number of Japanese and Chinese fishermen rushed into the market. Mr. Williamson was almost pushed off the stand. He was straightening himself up in the rush when a crowd of Japanese, including the secretary and a clerk of the market, it is said, began scolding him for being there, at the same time pushing their way toward him and pulling him from the stand. Mr. Williamson asked why it was wrong for him to watch the sale, saying he would leave after they gave him a reason.

Then the Japanese rushed at him. He pushed one of them in self-defense and he crowd mobbed him, both Japanese and Chinese attacking. A Japanese thrust at him with a bamboo pole, wounding him on the chin. Another threw a block of ice which cut him on the head, blood flowing freely. Several threw fish at him.

The Consul made his way to the police station half a block distant and Japanese policemen accompanied him back to the market, where the two Japs who attacked him were found. The Consul demanded their arrest, but the police refused to take them into custody.

Mr. Williamson made a protest to the Japanese administrator at Dalny and sent telegrams and letters to Washington reporting the assault.

Several Japanese newspapers comment on the affair, as well as on an attack made about the same time on a Miss Hayes, an American, at Yokohama, by Japanese newspaper reporter, who, it is alleged, struck her violently on the head several times without apparent cause.

Regarding the attack on Vice-Consul Williamson, the Kobe Herald says: "From messages received by the Osaka Asahi and Asahi, it is evident no official statement will be made at present. The accounts received by Japanese papers are, however, sufficient to prevent the matter being allowed to rest, and prompt measures should be taken by the authorities to bring the assailants to justice."

EXPLOSION SETS BLAZE AND TWO ARE OVERCOME.

Carbonic Tank Blows Up, Smashing Lamp in Cellar Under Candy Store.

Max Weinberg and his wife of No. 1, East One Hundred and Fifteenth street, were overcome by smoke in their home this morning when fire followed the bursting of a carbonic tank in the cellar.

The Weinbergs keep a candy and soda water store in the front of their living room.

In the cellar near the carbonic tank was a kerosene lamp, and when the tank exploded the blazing oil was sent in every direction.

The fire was discovered by Policeman Wilson, who turned in an alarm, and then carried the Weinbergs to the street. The loss was about $500.

Doctors Prescribed Morphine

I was taken with a terrible pain in my right kidney and right side, and had to commence doctoring, but got only temporary relief by the use of morphine. This pain came off and on. I tried everything and six doctors, but still grew worse. Some doctors called it neuritis, others said I had colic. The pain was so severe I could hardly breathe. It would run from my right kidney down to my bladder with such excruciating pains that it drew me almost double. I would keep my bed for days, and the terrible suffering I passed through I cannot express.

After suffering worse than death for one year, and spending lots of money, I went as a last resort to a drug store and purchased a bottle of Dr. Kilmor's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. I kept on using it until I had taken fourteen bottles, and to my surprise I passed twelve gravel stones the size of small soap beans. Anyone doubting the above statement may enclose stamp to me for reply.

Calvin S. Hinkle, Clear Springs, Pa.

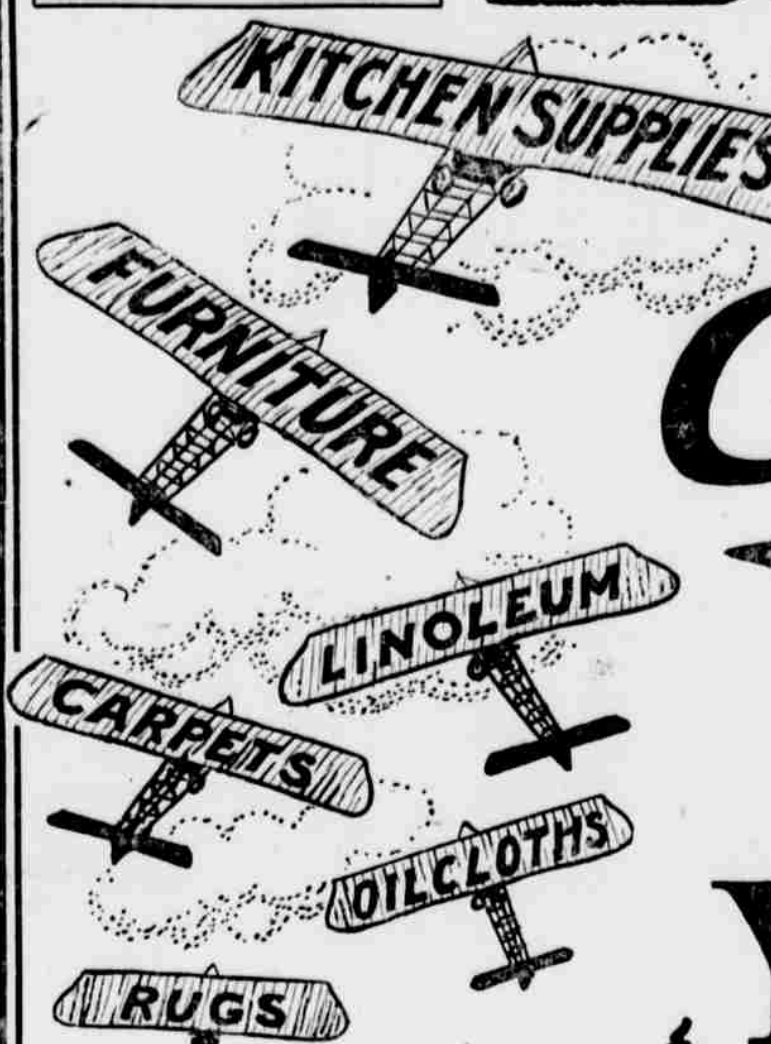

Before me a subscriber, a Justice of the Peace in and for said County, personally appeared Calvin S. Hinkle, who is duly sworn by me, did depose and say that the facts set forth in his testimonial attached hereto in regard to his use and benefits received from Dr. Kilmor's Swamp-Root are true and right, so he affirms.

Calvin S. Hinkle, Justice of the Peace.

Home Outfittings

At Prices Never Before Known in New York

A big rearrangement is going on. The Siegel Cooper Co. and Greenhut &amp; Co. are shortly to consolidate. The new name will be Greenhut-Siegel Cooper Co.

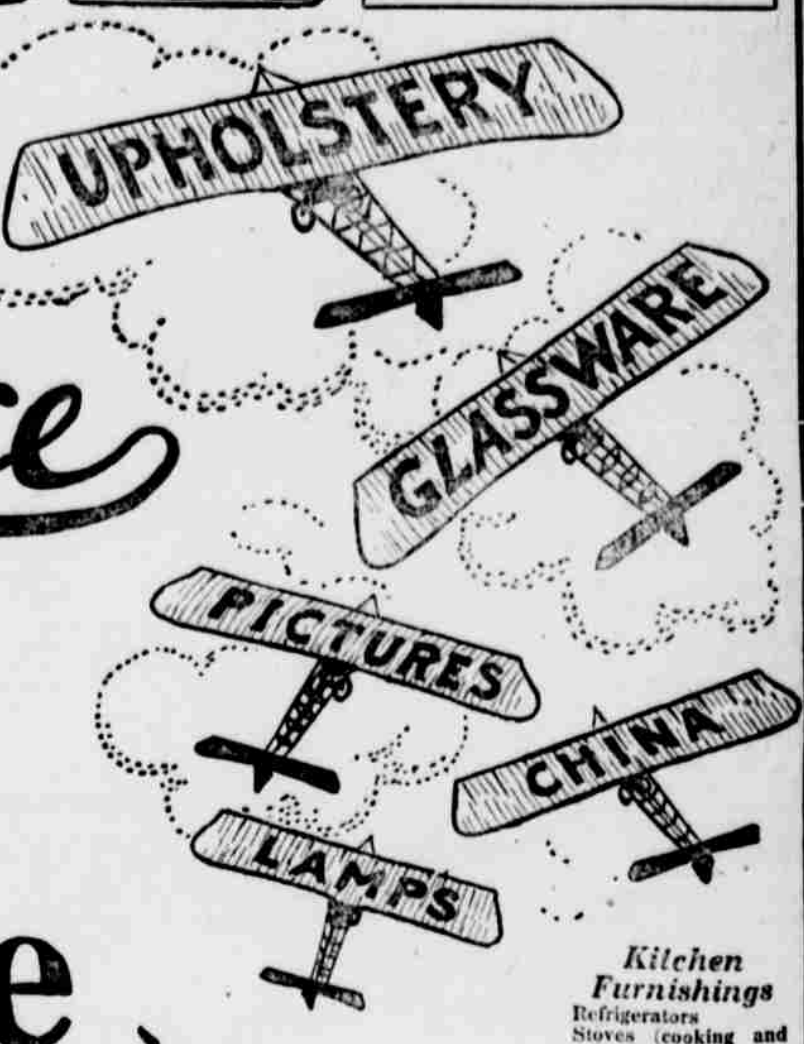

When the amalgamation takes place, the present Greenhut building will be found devoted EXCLUSIVELY to merchandise along home-outfitting lines. THIS building (that is, the Siegel Cooper Co. or MAIN building) will contain only dry goods, ready-to-wear apparel (for men, women and children) and food products.

It is not good judgment for us to MOVE our immense stocks of home outfittings to the Greenhut building, for TWO big reasons. First, we prefer to open, there, with entirely NEW stocks; second, the transfer of so tremendous a volume of merchandise would mean so much LABOR, so much DAMAGE and so great an INTERRUPTION TO BUSINESS that it is simply not to be thought of.

Therefore there is but one thing to do—to SELL AT ONCE every particle of the immense Siegel Cooper Co. stock of Furniture, Carpets, Rugs, Linoleums, Oilcloths, China, Glassware, Lamps,
